A SUMMARY OF THE NEWS

Communists took over the French Assembly chamber last night to prevent the expulsion of one of their members accused of having urged the army to disobey orders to suppress strike incidents. The seizure and attendant tumult forced adjournment of the session before final action on the Government's strike-control bill. Violence and sabotage were reported from many parts of France, a power strike halted Paris subway trains and Communists threatened to meet force with force.

Tension in Milan was eased by a face-saving compromise between the Italian Government and Communists over removal of that city's prefect.

Yesterday's session of the Foreign Ministers' conference in London was a series of disagreements between Russia and the three other nations. In the meeting of the Big Four deputies Russia rejected the French compromise on an Austrian peace treaty.

Premier Stalin promised Czechoslovakia 400,000 tons of grain, twice the amount Russia had offered the Czechs for deciding against participation in the Marshall plan.

The bill $597,000,000 for stop-gap aid to France, Italy and Austria was approved by the Senate, 83 to 6.

Can Dollars Save The World?

John L. Lewis says we should stop all coal exports for a while in order to fill our domestic bins. Not only do exports reduce domestic supply, but they intensify the railroad car shortage. This for the reason that a railroad coal car is tied up twice as long in moving coal from mine to shipside as from mine to domestic bins. We are now shipping coal to Newcastle and it costs $20 a ton to put it in European coal bins. The United Mine Workers Journal says: "The payments for

SIX HUNTERS FINED ON VARIOUS CHARGES

One Had Not Had License For Past Two Seasons; One Shoots Flicker

HEARINGS AT EDISON

A hunter who bragged about how much game he shot last year and who was displaying a 1946 hunter's license; together with five other hunters have come in contact with the law. One of the group is said to have shot a flicker which is claimed to have gotten mixed in with some starlings.

Arrested on various charges, hearings were held for the group before Justice of the Peace William Wrigley at Edison.

Francis Gross, Germantown, who was wearing a 1945 hunter's license on his coat and allegedly told the J. of P. how well he made out last year (1946), almost talked himself into another fine. He paid a fine of $20 and the costs of prosecution for hunting yesterday without a resident hunter's license.

"I put my coat away last year and forgot to get a license when I came up here," Gross told Justice Wrigley. "Do you realize that last year you needed a 1946 license?" the J. of P. asked and the hunter became silent.

Declaring that the bird, a flicker, which is a member of the woodpecker family, was fraternizing with starlings, John Renaldi, North Gross street, Philadelphia, paid a fine of $10 and the costs after pleading guilty to a charge of shooting a "protected bird".

For failure to display his license tags, Nick Carusi, Robinson street, Philadelphia, was fined $20 and the costs.

Domenic Gentile, North 27th street, Philadelphia, who pleaded guilty to failure to show his hunter's license, was fined $20 and the costs.

For having loaded weapons in moving vehicles, W. Erich Fautz, Point Pleasant, and Otto William Schuch, Ashbury Terrace, Philadelphia, both paid fines of $25 and the costs of prosecution.

The six hunters were all arrested on Thanksgiving Day and paid their fines and costs of prosecution before being discharged by Justice Wrigley.

NEGRO NEARING PAROLE IS GIVEN SENTENCE

George Hill Set Mattress Afire and Tripped A Guard

ONE DRUNKEN DRIVER

DOYLESTOWN, Dec. 2—A Trenton Negro who set fire to his mattress in the Bucks County Prison and tripped a prison guard because he didn't like a cell transfer that was ordered by the warden, was sentenced to an additional 9 to 23 months yesterday by Judge Hiram H. Keller at the opening of the December term of criminal court.

The defendant is George Hill, 25, who was serving a sentence of 1½ to 3 years for assault and battery growing out of a cutting affray on a farm near Morrisville.

Hill had served 21 months and was about to be recommended by the county court for a parole when he became stubborn on October 3 this year and protested about being transferred to another cell on an order issued by Warden Earl D. Handy.

Judge Keller was informed that it took two guards and the warden to move Hill to the other cell, and that after he had been placed in the cell, the mattress was set afire. The fire was extinguished, Warden Handy testified, and later on Hill again set fire to the mattress.

Warden Handy said that when Hill was threatened with the "gas treatment", he finally turned over

LOCATE A MISSING U. S. MILITARY PLANE

Found in French Zone of Occupied Germany; Contact Pilot

RESCUERS ARE READY

FRANKFURT, Dec. 2—(INS)—An American military transport plane, which has been missing with 29 persons since last Friday on a Pisa-Frankfurt flight, was found today in the French zone of occupied Germany.

Headquarters of the U. S. Army in Frankfurt announced that the missing C-47 Dakota had been contacted early this morning by a search plane in a rough, wooded area near Kelserslaarten.

The pilot of the downed aircraft radioed that he was badly in need of help, but was able to light fires to guide medical teams which prepared to parachute to the rescue.

The official announcement said the search plane pilot received a blinker light message from the wrecked craft.

As quoted by headquarters, this message said: "Am in rough area with trees, and badly need help."

"It's possible for me to build a fire."

The message was received at headquarters at 5:08 a. m. GMT. (12:08 a. m. EST).

Headquarters did not immediately disclose how many of the plane's crew or passengers were still alive.

Plead for New Name for Athletic Team

Residents Claim "Bunny" is Meek, Mild Creature, Not A "Fighter"

POLL AT HIGH SCHOOL

What is there in a name? Does a rose smell just as sweet by any other name?

These are trite sayings over a period of years, but evidently some folks are of the opinion that a name means a lot.

A poll is being taken of the student body of the Bristol high school to learn the boys' and girls' opinions on a name which over a period of years has been applied to athletic teams at the high school.

The sports teams at present are known as "The Bristol Bunnies." Many think that the term "bunnies" is not particularly applicable to athletic teams and for this reason the poll is being conducted.

The students have been asked to suggest two names and the outcome of the poll is being eagerly awaited.

"Give that football team some name other than 'Bunnies,'" said David Landreth, last night, in discussing the subject at the meeting of the school board. "Who ever heard of a football team called 'Bunnies'? Give the team a fighting name. Call it lions, tigers, leopards or anything but 'Bunnies'."

This is the idea held by a number of others, not only in the schools, but residents of the town as well, it is stated.

The bunny is a meek and mild creature and is anything but typical of the spirit generally associated with athletic teams fighting for supremacy. "A bunny runs away from everything," say those who want to drop the name.

HOLLYWOOD SHAKEN

Movie moguls now announce—somewhat surlily, it is true—that they will purge the ranks of their hangers-on of Communists. Or apparently that is what they said. But whether they will dispense with the services of Eric Johnston, who started on a different tack until he was hauled up short is problematical.

The movie moguls for years condemned Communism in Hollywood and were not spurred into action until the House, by a vote of 346 to 17, supported its un-American Activities Committee, which had cited 10 Hollywood characters for contempt of the committee.

The vote of the House was a reasonably accurate reflection of public opinion. The 17 who voted in favor of the Hollywood radicals also represented the Win-chells and other blabber-mouths who have been espousing the cause of those who have fought the committee of Congress tooth and tongue.

The action of Congress is a hopeful sign that this country has the authority to defend itself against enemies from within.

There will be no public sympathy wasted on the 10 Hollywood employees who must now answer citations for contempt. Their offense was a refusal to say whether they were members of the Communist party, and they took the hypocritical position that it was an unlawful invasion of their constitutional rights to inquire into their political affiliations.

This attitude was mere nonsense. The Constitution was never designed to protect those who belong to any group which seeks to overthrow the government of the United States by force. And it is a misnomer to call the Communist outfit a political party. It is a subversive organization in every sense of the word and it takes its orders from a foreign country which makes no secret of the fact that it wants to destroy the American way of life.

As able and patriotic Chairman Thomas of the House committee says, it would be a complete paradox for Congress to spend billions to fight Communism abroad and at the same time not be able to take a single step to inquire into the activities of Communist conspirators right here at home.

There's the case in a nutshell.

Because the earth is slowing down in its movement the day may eventually be 48 hours long. Then a two weeks' vacation would give time to get there and back and have a few hours to look the place over.

There having been some confusion over the Roosevelts, and an effort made to connect Tom Dewey with the famous admiral, it should be explained Governor Warren of California is not the hero of Bunker Hill.

Tips are reported to be about half as large as formerly, or approximately the size of the entire bill before the war.

Inside Your Congress

this coal came from the United States. . . Foreign buyers have been choosy, spending none of their own money, they have bid against each other for our choice coals and have run the prices up to the point that . . . this export coal will cost American consumers from $250,000,000 to $500,000,000 in 1947 on all coal consumed on the American domestic front. It's the same old story of Government buying of wheat and other commodities for European aid, Government inflation of the people's money and Government methods of purchase inflate the prices on the domestic front."

Another man who knows coal and steel is Mr. Ernest Weir of the National Steel Corporation. After months of study on the spot abroad, he says the British government is falsifying the coal picture. It estimates 200 million tons this year, but fails to mention that this figure includes 10% waste formerly deducted. In reality, they will produce 180 million tons of usable coal, compared with 240 million tons previously, which left a surplus of tens of millions of tons available for export to France, Belgium, Holland, Italy, Spain, etc. So we are called upon, with wasteful use of our coal cars and ships to send "coals to Newcastle" to supply the needs of England's former customers, at a cost to us of $20 a ton! Officialdom would condemn business men for falsifying figures in this way.

Talk about dollar shortage is a propaganda device to put America in wrong. Europeans are consuming more than they produce. It is a production shortage. As Henry Hazlitt points out in his admirable book, CAN DOLLARS SAVE THE WORLD?, this excess of imports arises because the Socialist governments of England and France insist on giving their money, with the aid of the United States Treasury, a fictitious high value in terms of dollars. This makes it easier for them to buy abroad, but harder for the outside world to buy from them. It discourages American tourist trade, official price-fixing of imports and exports hurts the export of French wines, perfumes and laces, Dutch cheeses and tulips, Swiss embroidery and the tourist use of Alpine hotels.

Europe's politicians find it easier to call for dollar help from us than to give a sound value to their money by balancing budgets and firing hundreds of thousands of their retainers on government payrolls.

So, having destroyed a free market in goods, and having prevented European money from finding its natural price level in terms of our money, more and more controls are clamped on the world's business. Price-fixing always begins on the necessities. These are compelled to be sold for less than a free market price, and therefore discourages production, except as black markets sustain demand. So, necessities are underproduced and luxuries are overproduced, with the result that the first step is manpower controls, the forced shifting of workmen from trades which they may have pursued for a lifetime into what the government calls "essential" goods. So, socialism becomes the ante-room to communism and the "police state."

We are now trying to cure this "cancer" with a poultice plaster of American dollars. What European workmen and business men need is freedom from all this red tape. But rather than insist on their giving it up, our own planners in Washington are going to wind us up in it too. Misery loves company!

GOOD BUYING

Good Telephone Service
at Low Cost

SUPPOSE WE WERE BUYING APPLES—instead of telephone equipment—for the people of Pennsylvania.

You would expect us to buy (a) good apples at (b) a favorable price. You wouldn't expect us to pay 10c per apple if three good apples could be bought for 25c . . . or if 300 good apples could be bought for $20.00.

We are guided by this same principle in buying telephone equipment—wire and cable, switchboards and insulators, telephone instruments and dial mechanisms.

We insist, above all, on good equipment, for only with good equipment can you provide good telephone service, and only with good equipment can costs be kept low. We seek a favorable price, for a favorable price also helps us to keep your telephone bills down.

That's why we do most of our buying through Western Electric, supply unit of the Bell System. We know that Western Electric equipment—and the equipment that Western Electric buys elsewhere—meets our standards. And because Western Electric furnishes equipment in such large quantities to all operating companies within the Bell System, we can buy what we need at prices substantially lower than we would have to pay elsewhere for equipment of like quality.

Good buying, in short, is simply one more reason why you have the best possible telephone service at the lowest possible cost.

HOLLYWOOD SHAKEN

Movie moguls now announce—somewhat surlily, it is true—that they will purge the ranks of their hangers-on of Communists. Or apparently that is what they said. But whether they will dispense with the services of Eric Johnston, who started on a different tack until he was hauled up short is problematical.

The movie moguls for years condoned Communism in Hollywood and were not spurred into action until the House, by a vote of 346 to 17, supported its un-American Activities Committee which had cited 10 Hollywood characters for contempt of the committee.

The vote of the House was a reasonably accurate reflection of public opinion. The 17 who voted in favor of the Hollywood radicals also represented the Winchells and other blabber-mouths who have been espousing the cause of those who have fought the committee of Congress tooth and tongue.

The action of Congress is a hopeful sign that this country has the authority to defend itself against enemies from within.

There will be no public sympathy wasted on the 10 Hollywood employees who must now answer citations for contempt. Their offense was a refusal to say whether they were members of the Communist party, and they took the hypocritical position that it was an unlawful invasion of their constitutional rights to inquire into their political affiliations.

This attitude was mere nonsense. The Constitution was never designed to protect those who belong to any group which seeks to overthrow the government of the United States by force. And it is a misnomer to call the Communist outfit a political party. It is a subversive organization in every sense of the word and it takes its orders from a foreign country which makes no secret of the fact that it wants to destroy the American way of life.

As able and patriotic Chairman Thomas of the House committee says, it would be a complete paradox for Congress to spend billions to fight Communism abroad and at the same time not be able to take a single step to inquire into the activities of Communist conspirators right here at home.

There's the case in a nutshell.

Because the earth is slowing down in its movement the day may eventually be 48 hours long. Then a two weeks' vacation would give time to get there and back and have a few hours to look the place over.

There having been some confusion over the Roosevelt, and an effort made to connect Tom Dewey with the famous admiral, it should be explained Governor Warren of California is not the hero of Bunker Hill.

Tips are reported to be about half as large as formerly, or approximately the size of the entire bill before the war.

Inside Your Congress

this coal came from the United States. . . Foreign buyers have been choosy, spending none of their own money, they have bid against each other for our choice coals and have run the prices up to the point that . . . this export coal will cost American consumers from $250,000,000 to $500,000,000 in 1947 on all coal consumed on the American domestic front. It's the same old story of Government buying of wheat and other commodities for European aid, Government misuse of the people's money and Government methods of purchase inflate the prices on the domestic front."

Another man who knows coal and steel is Mr. Ernest Weir of the National Steel Corporation. After months of study on the spot abroad, he says the British government is falsifying the coal picture. It estimates 200 million tons this year, but fails to mention that this figure includes 10% waste formerly deducted. In reality, they will produce 180 million tons of usable coal compared with 240 million tons previously, which left a surplus of tens of millions of tons available for export to France, Belgium, Holland, Italy, Spain, etc. So we are called upon, with waste of our coal cars and ships to send "coals to Newcastle" to supply the needs of England's former customers, at a cost to us of $20 a ton! Officialdom would condemn business men for falsifying figures in this way.

Talk about dollar shortage is a propaganda device to put America in wrong. Europeans are consuming more than they produce. It is a production shortage. As Henry Hazlitt points out in his admirable book, CAN DOLLARS SAVE THE WORLD?, this excess of imports arises because the Socialist governments of England and France insist on giving their money, with the aid of the United States Treasury, a fictitious high value in terms of dollars. This makes it easier for them to buy abroad, but harder for the outside world to buy from them. It discourages American tourist trade. Official price-fixing of pounds and francs hurts the export of French wines, perfumes and lace, Dutch cheeses and tulips, Swiss embroidery and the tourist use of Alpine hotels.

Europe's politicians find it easier to call for dollar help from us than to give a sound value to their money by balancing budgets and firing hundreds of thousands of their retainers on government payrolls.

So, having destroyed a free market in goods, and having prevented European money from finding its natural price level in terms of our money, more and more controls are dumped on the world's business. Price-fixing always begins on the necessities. These are compelled to be sold for less than a free market price, and therefore discourages production, except as black markets sustain demand. So, necessities are underproduced and luxuries are overproduced, with the result that the next step is manpower controls, the forced shifting of workmen from trades which they may have pursued for a lifetime into what the government calls "essential" goods. So, socialism becomes the anti-room to communism and the "police state."

We are now trying to cure this "cancer" with a poultice plaster of American dollars. What European workmen and business men need is freedom from all this red tape, but rather than insist on their giving it up, our own planners in Washington are going to wind us up in it too. Misery loves company!

Eternal Spirit, who art from everlasting, help us to walk the path thou intendest for us and not to faint upon life's road. Open our eyes to behold thy beauty, truth, and goodness that though our days be but as a passing shadow they may be filled with a consciousness of Thee. May we abide close to Thee in a simple life of trust and faith, through Him who shows us the Way. Amen.

JUNIOR HIBERNIANS AND KEYSTONE OILERS WIN IN BASKETBALL LEAGUE OPENING

The Junior Hibernians and the Keystone Oilers were victorious in the opening games of the Bristol Youth Basketball League played last night on the Mutual Aid court. The Hibeos trounced Second Ward Boys Club, 39-24, while the Oilers ran away with the Celtics, 45-21.

Bucks County Detective Anthony Russo tossed up the first ball to open the league. The ball was handed to him by Chief of Police Linford J. Jones. Both Russo and Jones are interested in the circuit as one of Bristol's means of combatting juvenile delinquency.

The Bristol High School band rendered selections, and president of the League, Ralph Palladino, urged the fans to support the band in its drive for new uniforms.

Joe Schriber paved the way for the Junior Hibe's victory by hitting the cords for seven double-deckers and a quartet of fouls. He managed to amass 14 of his 18 points during the first half, being guarded very closely during the second half.

For the Second Ward boys, "Tony" Sottile basketed eleven points on five field goals and a free shot.

The Hibeos had the lead from the start and were never headed.

The Keystone aggregation hit the nets with ease in their tilt with the Celtics. The gasmen had a 22-8 half-time lead and were led in scoring by Indelicato and Mancini, who had 12 and 11 points, respectively.

Sanders led the losers with six points.

a penknife that he carried in his pocket.

Hill told the court that the knife was given to him by another prisoner for some cigarettes, months ago. Hill said that his cell had been searched, but that he was never searched personally.

Hill told Judge Keller that he was sore because of the cell transfer. He admitted that he got up late in the morning after the State Parole board had refused to grant him a parole.

"You have been very foolish," Judge Keller told Hill. "The court was about to recommend a parole for you when this happened."

The sentence imposed, 9 months to 23 months, is to run concurrently with the sentence he is now serving, which means that he will have to serve the balance of his original sentence.

Pleading guilty to drunken driving, John Leonard O'Mara, 19, 26 West Paul Ave., Trenton, N. J., appeared before Judge Calvin S. Boyer.

Officer George Harton, of the local police department, who arrested the youth Oct. 25, testified he saw the defendant slump in his car while driving through Monument Square about 2 o'clock in the morning.

The defendant testified he had a date with some girl at "Hustle Inn," here.

Dr. H. T. Crough pronounced him unfit to drive a car.

"I felt dizzy and thought I would pull over to the curb and wait awhile when the cop picked me up," said O'Mara, who admitted he had been drinking in Lambertville and various other taprooms here and between New Hope and Doylestown.

Judge Boyer suspended sentence on condition that the defendant pay $100 and the costs of prosecution and that he be placed on probation for a year. He was ordered not to drink for one year or drive a car in Pennsylvania.

JUNIOR HIBERNIANS AND KEYSTONE OILERS WIN IN BASKETBALL LEAGUE OPENING

The Junior Hibernians and the Keystone Oilers were victorious in the opening games of the Bristol Youth Basketball League played last night on the Mutual Aid court. The Hibs trounced Second Ward Boys Club, 39-24, while the Oilers ran away with the Celtics, 45-21.

Bucks County Detective Anthony Russo tossed up the first ball to open the league. The ball was handed to him by Chief of Police Linford J. Jones. Both Russo and Jones are interested in the circuit as one of Bristol's means of combatting juvenile delinquency.

The Bristol High School band rendered selections, and president of the League, Ralph Palladino, urged the fans to support the band in its drive for new uniforms.

Joe Schriber paved the way for the Junior Hibs' victory by hitting the cords for seven double-deckers and a quartet of fouls. He managed to amass 14 of his 18 points during the first half, being guarded very closely during the second half.

For the Second Ward boys, "Tony" Sottile basketed eleven points on five field goals and a free shot.

The Hibs had the lead from the start and were never headed.

The Keystone aggregation hit the nets with ease in their tilt with the Celtics. The gammen had a 22-8 half-time lead and were led in scoring by Indelicato and Mancini, who had 12 and 11 points, respectively.

Sanders led the losers with six points.

Hill told the court that the knife was given to him by another prisoner for some cigarettes, months ago. Hill said that his cell had never searched personally.

Hill told Judge Keller that he was sore because of the cell transfer. He admitted that he got up late in the morning after the State Parole board had refused to grant him a parole.

"You have been very foolish," Judge Keller told Hill. "The court was about to recommend a parole for you when this happened."

The sentence imposed, 9 months to 23 months, is to run concurrently with the sentence he is now serving, which means that he will have to serve the balance of his original sentence.

Pleading guilty to drunken driving, John Leonard O'Mara, 19, 26 West Paul Ave., Trenton, N. J., appeared before Judge Calvin S. Boyer.

Officer George Harton, of the local police department, who arrested the youth Oct. 25, testified he saw the defendant slumped in his car while driving through Monument Square about 2 o'clock in the morning.

The defendant testified he had a date with some girl at "Hustle Inn," here.

Dr. H. T. Crough pronounced him unfit to drive a car.

"I felt dizzy and thought I would pull over to the curb and wait awhile when the cop picked me up," said O'Mara, who admitted he had been drinking in Lambertville and various other taprooms here and between New Hope and Doylestown.

Judge Boyer suspended sentence on condition that the defendant pay $100 and the costs of prosecution and that he be placed on probation for a year. He was ordered not to drink for one year or drive a car in Pennsylvania.
